Liberal General, Who Had Sixty Victims to His Credit, Slain by Ameri-

OFFICER IS FORCED TO SHOOT WOMAN

Companion of General Is Killed as She Sought to Use Machete on Captain Richards.

Managua, Nicaragua, May 27.—(P)—Attacked with a machete in the hands of a woman while remonstrating with the bandit chief Cabulla early today, Captain William P. Richards, of the United States marine corps, shot and killed Cabulla who had drawn a revolver and then was forced to kill the woman in self-defense, say advices received here from Chinandega.

Captain Richards had gone to a house in which Cabulla was staying to remonstrate against the maltreatment of several inhabitants by the bandit leader. As Richards entered the door, he was attacked by a woman in the house with a machete, while Cabulla leaped from his bed and drew a revolver. Captain Richards then upon drew his own weapon and fired, killing Cabulla instantly and then was forced to kill the woman in self-defense.

Cabulla, who was described as a "liberal bandit" leader, was called the Pancho Villa of Nicaragua and had been credited with 60 killings. He virtually controlled a large part of the northwestern frontier section of the country.

The advices received here said he rode into the small town of Elizaco yesterday in an intoxicated condition. The report said he intimidated and maltreated several peaceful inhabitants.

A complaint was thereupon made to Captain Richards, commanding a small marine detachment in the town. The captain went to the house in which Cabulla had gone to inform him that such actions would not be tolerated.

NO REPORTS RECEIVED BY CAPITAL OFFICIALS.

Washington, May 27.—(P)—No official report had been received tonight by the navy department on the killing in self-defense by Captain William P. Richards of two Nicaraguans. Usually several days elapse before word is received regarding such incidents from Rear Admiral Latimer, American naval commander in Nicaragua. This was the case recently when a marine officer and a private were killed during a skirmish with bandits.

Managua dispatches on May 11 said that a band of former troops under General Cabulla, who called himself a liberal but who was described by the liberals as a bandit, had entered the outskirts of Chinandega killing a half-dozen natives, wounding a number of others and engaging in an orgy of plundering. They fled before the arrival of American marines, a detachment of which was concentrating near the railway.

Dispatches three days later said Cabulla, with 400 men, was still holding out near Chinandega. On May 16 it was reported that Cabulla intended going to Managua to confer with the liberal General Moncada with regard to disarming his forces under the agreement between General Moncada and Henry L. Stimson, who recently visited Nicaragua as the personal representative of President Coolidge.

WINGS COLLAPSE, AIRMAN KILLED AT FORD AIRPORT

Detroit, Mich., May 27.—(UN)—Phillip Downes, of Boston, former member of the first pursuit group of Selfridge Field, Michigan, was killed at the Ford airport Friday afternoon while experimenting with a monoplane. The wings collapsed after he had straightened out from a nose dive. Downes once lived at Bryan, Ohio, with his wife, where he worked for an airplane company.

Cook Exonerated, McLendon To Ask Legislative Probe

Charge Against Former
Cashier for Missing State
Funds "No Billed" by Grand Jury.

ATTORNEY GENERAL
SAYS CASE CLOSED

Secretary McLendon Issues Statement, Says He Will Seek Investigation of "Entire Office."

After the Fulton county grand jury following a two-day investigation of an alleged shortage of $8,389 in the state motor vehicle department, had declined to return any indictment against Charles A. Cook, former cashier of that department, Secretary of State S. G. McLendon, in whose office the department is operated, issued a statement in which he announced he would call on the legislature at its approaching session to make an official investigation of his office from "top to bottom."

The grand jury sent back a tentative plan charging Mr. Cook with a felony with a notation "no bill" on it. Friends of Mr. Cook at the capitol considered this action of the grand jury a complete vindication of any criminal connection with the case and as a token of appreciation sent him a large bouquet of flowers.

In calling on the legislature to investigate his whole office from "top to bottom," Secretary McLendon said he wanted a thorough investigation made.

"It cannot be too thorough to please me," he said.

Announced Shortage.

Mr. Cook was cashier of the motor vehicle department until March 31. He was asked to resign as cashier by Secretary S. G. McLendon when State Auditor Sam J. Slater returned a report charging that a shortage of $8,389 existed in the department. Before the report of Auditor Slater was made public Mr. Cook issued a statement declaring that a shortage existed and that it amounted to approximately $8,000. He made this announcement after the arrest of Charles Wilkes, a negro porter, who was charged with taking $500 from the office safe. Mr. Cook said he had known that money was being taken from the department and that he set to work to catch the thief. When the negro was arrested Mr. Cook made public the amount he said was missing and this was approximately the same amount Mr. Slater reported as the shortage.

Cook Pleaded.

Mr. Cook, when informed of the action of the grand jury in returning a "no bill" against him, expressed his satisfaction over this action and stated that it amounted to a complete vindication.

"The grand jury was furnished with all the records in the case and also called before it Secretary McLendon and other office officials. With this evidence in hand its verdict in the case is a vindication for me. The action bears out the position I have taken in this matter all the time and that I shall I want to see the persons guilty of taking this money brought to justice. At present I have nothing else to say other than to express my deep appreciation of the grand jury's action."

Although Mr. Cook had nothing else to say Friday, his friends at the capitol were outspoken in expressing the opinion that an effort will be made shortly to have Mr. Cook restored to his former post in the motor vehicle department.

Among those who appear before the grand jury during the two-day investigation were Secretary McLendon, Attorney General George M. Nais, Auditor Slater and several other employees of the department. The negro, Charles Wilkes, who was recently indicted by the grand jury in connection with the alleged theft of $500, was called before the jury Friday.

When Secretary of State McLendon issued a call on the state treasurer to demand the amount of the alleged shortage from Mr. Cook as legally "being withheld," Mr. Cook issued a

PLANS STATE LAW ON BAUMES IDEA

Kemp To Introduce Bill
For Georgia Providing Life Imprisonment for Professional Criminals.

Enactment of a law in Georgia similar to the Baumes law now in force in the state of New York will be advocated before the Georgia legislature at its approaching session by Representative W. M. Kemp, of Cobb county, he announced Friday. This law provides that defendants who are convicted for the fourth time of felonies shall, after this fourth conviction, be sentenced to serve a life term in the state prison.

Mr. Kemp has been studying this law and its effects in New York and said many leading judges and solicitors of Georgia believe its passage will have a wholesome effect in reducing crime in this state, if passed. A bill providing for such convictions will be introduced early in the session by Representative Kemp.

"When you look at this situation squarely it can be readily seen that no logical argument can be offered against the passage of such a law," he said. "If criminals persist in violating the law, time after time, it is best for society to retire them to some safe place of confinement."

In a communication to The Constitution, Representative Kemp said:

"I have been much interested in the records and operation of the Baumes law in the state of New York. The provision of this law is that when a defendant has been convicted the fourth time in the criminal courts that, upon the fourth trial he is sent to the penitentiary for life."

"Such a provision in our laws would put an end to defendants coming before the courts time after time to be tried for violations of the law; it would put teeth in the enforcement of the law. Criminals who adopt crime as a profession would find it a losing game and they could be of service to the state in the building of the roads."

"It is my intention as a member of the house from Cobb county to introduce such a bill at the coming session."

BOARD SHELVES TEACHER SUMMER SCHOOL PROTEST

Sessions Planned for Nine Branches Despite
Petition Signed by 1,026
Instructors.

Declining to reconsider its position in ordering the opening of summer schools during the vacation season, the Atlanta board of education Friday tabled a petition submitted by J. P. Barron, president of the Public School Teachers' Association of Atlanta and a resolution of the Parent Teachers' council of Atlanta, requesting that opening of the summer sessions be deferred.

The board received the petition which Mr. Barron pointed out, bore the signatures of 1,026 teachers of the system, and the resolutions of the parent-teacher organization, but failed to act on them.

The board then proceeded to work out plans for establishment of five white elementary summer schools, three negro elementary summer schools, and a junior and senior high session at Commercial High school. They will open July 13 and close August 26, according to the plan, which was submitted by Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of schools, and adopted.

Students who have failed or who through forced absences were not able to reach the standard or who are recommended by the teachers are eligible for the summer sessions.

A call will be issued for volunteer teachers, who will be placed on a preferred list, permitting them to take half a year vacation with pay for every two years they serve as teachers in the summer sessions. Practically all subjects which are now on the curriculum will be included in the summer work with the exception of shop work.

Teachers can be required to serve one summer session every five years, according to a ruling of the board.

Petition Filed.

Elementary sessions will be opened in the four quadrants of the city and one in a centrally located position. All classes will begin promptly at 8:30 o'clock in the morning and end at noon.

After the teachers' petition had been ordered filed by Dr. R. M. Eubanks, president of the board, Mrs. George West, of the eleventh ward, took the floor and asked what disposition would be made of it. She was informed by Dr. Eubanks that it had been ordered filed, and this was the signal for an attempt by W.

STAGE DIRECTOR SAYS FAMOUS PRODUCER LOST $100,000 GAMBLING IN FLORIDA.

White Plains, N. Y., May 27.—(P)—Allegations that Florenz Ziegfeld, theatrical producer, has no tangible assets to meet his liabilities, that for two years he has permitted his notes to go to protest and that he lost $100,000 gambling in Florida last year, were contained in the affidavit of Edward Royce, stage director, who has brought suit for 1 per cent of the gross receipts of the production "Rio Rita." The affidavit was read in superior court here today.

Royce, through his attorney, David Newberger, asked Justice Seeger for an order compelling Ziegfeld to deposit 1 per cent of the gross receipts of the production with a bank or a receiver to be named by the court, pending decision in the suit. Justice Seeger reserved decision.

Ziegfeld, through counsel, denied all Royce's allegations, and asked Justice Seeger to strike out the affidavit of Royce on the ground it contains "scurrilous, scandalous, libelous and grossly untrue falsehoods."

Decision on the motion also was reserved by Justice Seeger. Ziegfeld said in an affidavit that he owns numerous pieces of real estate, and that he receives $50,000 annually for motion picture rights for his stage productions.

The "Rio Rita" company was named as a co-defendant by Royce who seeks to compel Ziegfeld to carry out the terms of the contract which, he said, was signed December 2, 1926, under which he was to receive $100,000 as a pension fund for life while the production was in rehearsal and 1 per cent of gross receipts during the presentation.

Royce said Ziegfeld is the owner of the "Rio Rita" company and "used it as a disguise" that he owns no realty in his own name; that he has no tangible assets to meet his liabilities; that he owes more than $200,000 and that law suits for $37,000 and $10,000 are pending against him.

Royce was represented by his attorney in court as one of the foremost stage directors in the world and director of "Kid Boots," "Sally," "Annie Get Your Gun" and other stage successes.

Ziegfeld, according to Royce's affidavit, is "a middle-aged man" and his "knowledge is restricted to women and costumes, but nevertheless he thinks himself somewhat of a stage director and manager."

In his counter-attack Ziegfeld charged that Royce, instead of being discharged from his duties in connection with "Rio Rita" had left voluntarily. He asserted Royce, at a performance in Boston, had admitted being a "has-been," unable to stage modern dances.

He expressed the belief that the stage director had retired after he had called a rehearsal because he realized that he could not meet modern requirements of staging musical shows.

New York, May 27.—From the bridge of a United States warship about four weeks hence, Captain Charles A. Lindbergh will wave his greetings on his return to the land of his nativity. For Captain Lindbergh today called his mother, Mrs. Evangeline Lodge Lindbergh, of Detroit, that he will accept the invitation of President Coolidge and come home as the guest of his nation. Mrs. Lindbergh disclosed by long-distance telephone tonight.

Lindbergh received the official invitation, inspected the "Spirit of St. Louis" monoplane he flew from New York to Paris, scanned his itinerary which takes him through foreign capitals as guest of kings and such, and decided to start for home about June 16, the plane to his mother advised.

Plans for Reception.

Awaiting definite information as to his time of arrival in New York, plans for his reception here, in St. Louis and subsequently in Detroit, have not been definitely made, according to John C. Lodge, Charles' grand uncle and personal representative of Mrs. Lindbergh.

CARROLL'S CONDITION GRAVE; PHYSICIANS FEAR INSANITY, SUICIDE AFTER EXAMINATION

DISEASE MENACE IS CHIEF SPECTER ALARMING HOOVER

Thousands of Refugees
Huddled, White and Black, Together in Small
Tented Cities.

Lafayette, La., May 27.—(P)—The dread menace of an epidemic among the thousands of Acadian refugees huddled in small tented cities today was the problem before Secretary of Commerce Hoover.

Visiting the two largest camps housing the Acadians, Lafayette and Opelousas, Mr. Hoover found that the crowding of flood victims, both white and negroes, into small tented encampments and under cotton or sugar baling warehouses created serious health menaces and immediately made a relocation of the encampments, to dry, higher areas. He also ordered all the encampments to be fashioned like army cantonments with board floors for the tents.

The refugees in both camps were busy building the new tented cities with women arranging the mess kitchens.

Heavy rains early this week had badly washed out camps in both cities and the refugees suffered considerable hardship. Those at Opelousas fled to cotton warehouses when their tents were washed away.

The last of the vaccinations and typhoid inoculations were under way, more than half of the refugees in both camps already having received the treatments.

Mr. Hoover desires to distribute the refugees into smaller camps at various towns and villages along the railroads instead of grouping them into larger camps in three towns.

Food and clothing shortages might result from two great concentrations in the small cities. Mr. Hoover believes, but many of the refugees are loath to leave their present quarters in the cities which formerly served as their trading centers. Through the persuasion of his priests, however, Secretary Hoover expects to effect the removal.

Secretary Hoover found that more than 30,000 refugees from the flooded west of Louisiana were huddled at Opelousas and Lafayette and the 13,500 in Opelousas.

UTAH GIRL WINS ORATORY CONTEST

Miss Dorothy Carlson, of Salt Lake City, First of Sex To Be Declared National Champion.

Washington, May 27.—(P)—Dorothy Carlson, of Salt Lake City, won the national oratorical contest here tonight.

The five associate justices of the supreme court who were judges rated James M. Tunnell, Jr., of Georgetown, Del., second and Jefferson Meagher, of Binghamton, N. Y., third. The rating of the other four contestants, as is customary, was not announced.

Miss Carlson was the only girl competing in tonight's finals and she was the first girl to win in the national championship contests which have been held annually for the last four years. She earned the right to compete in an international contest here in October.

At first place believed the victim of Martin was Evelyn LaGrand, who was summoned to a door a few nights ago and shot to death by one of three men, all of whom are being held, or investigation. Miss LaGrand had slain a notorious St. Louis gangster, and after her release, came to Chicago. She was undoubtedly a victim of gangland vengeance and not of Martin.

It has been shown Miss LaGrand was trying to protect a young girl from gangsters here and they probably got her out of their way by the quickest and surest method—a fusillade of shots in the abdomen.

The only connection between the suicide of Martin, who left a note telling of slaying a girl "with a baby face and the heart of a devil" is his mention in this note that he borrowed the pistol with which he killed her from a brother of Al Capone, a gang leader.

Divorce Decree Given Mrs. Horace E. Dodge

Parents Divide Custody of Children

Detroit, May 27.—(P)—A divorce decree was granted Mrs. Lois Knowlson Dodge from Horace E. Dodge this afternoon in a surprise hearing before Judge Brennan in circuit court. The divorce will become final next week when a formal decree is entered by Judge Brennan.

Dodge did not appear at the hearing, but was represented by his attorney, Charles P. Wright, Jr.

A recommendation of Edward P. Koryak, a friend of the court, that Mrs. Dodge be given custody of the two children, Delphine Louise, 5, and Horace E. III, who are ill in Los Angeles, was met by Mrs. Dodge with a statement to the court that she and Dodge had agreed that each would have the children six months of the year.

Mrs. Dodge, who appeared pale and tired, took the witness stand and explained charges of cruelty against Dodge. She listed his interest in speed boats as one of her complaints.

"Mr. Dodge and I were very happy the first year of our marriage but in the second year his attitude seemed to change," Mrs. Dodge testified.

"He indulged in fits of temper and used abusive language, and he would go away without saying where he was going or why. Sometimes he was away like that for two or three weeks. He went frequently to New York on such trips."

In reply to a question by Lester L. Moll, one of her counsel, if Dodge spent a good deal of time away from his business at his family's expense, the witness said "Yes," and added, "I told him that I wished he would spend less time on his speed boats and more time at home."

"There is absolutely no hope," Mrs. Dodge replied to a question of Judge Brennan if there was any chance of reconciliation.

The Dodges were married June 1, 1921. The date of their separation was set today by Mrs. Dodge as in October, 1926, when she declared her husband left her and the children and moved to an apartment.

A property settlement of January 5, 1927, was submitted to Judge Brennan but was not made a part of the record.

English Aide of Rus-

BY DAVID DARRAH.
(Copyright, 1927, by The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

London, May 27.—In a brisk 700-word note, Sir Austen Chamberlain this afternoon told M. Rosenzweig, the soviet charge d'affaires, to leave England within 10 days, thus officially severing Anglo-Russian relations.

Undismayed by the severe indictment contained in the note, M. Rosenzweig lunched shortly after the delivery of the note in the house of commons as the guest of a group of labor members of parliament who gave the luncheon as a farewell, which, it was announced, was without political significance. But which is likely to raise a storm in the house of commons a few days hence.

Germany Represents Russia.

It was announced that Russian affairs in London henceforth will be handled through the German embassy. Who will handle British affairs in Moscow has not been determined.

The British note formally severing diplomatic relations and ending the trade agreements as already fore-shadowed declares, first, that the Arcos find proved conclusively that the Russian trade delegates were engaged in military espionage and subversive activities, and second, that M. Rosenzweig himself wired to Moscow for information on how to support a political campaign in England. The British note was addressed to M. Rosenzweig himself. It was not couched in the usual diplomatic language, nor as is usual, did it request that it be communicated to the Russian government.

After recounting the grievances the note ends by saying: "The existing

Police Seek Body of Girl With "Heart of a Devil"

Chicago, Ill., May 27.—Somewhere in Chicago, presumably in a tiny back room in a cordial neighborhood, there lies dead a 19-year-old girl. When the police, now conducting a thorough search, find the body they will have solved the mystery surrounding the suicide, in a Milwaukee hotel, of Werner C. Martin, who deserted a wife and two babies in New York for the girl he shot to death before taking his own life.

At first place believed the victim of Martin was Evelyn LaGrand, who was summoned to a door a few nights ago and shot to death by one of three men, all of whom are being held, or investigation. LY HERB MCUSKER.

While not in a critical stage, Earl Carroll's life is actually endangered; his physical condition today is more acute than it was a week ago, and immediate action is imperative in order that serious results may be forestalled.

This information was obtained by The Constitution Friday from Dr. Henry M. McGeehe, Atlanta physician, upon his return from Greenville, S. C., where he participated Thursday night in a joint examination of the New York theatrical producer with government neurologists and psychiatrists.

Dr. McGeehe's opinion of the gravity of Carroll's condition was substantiated in a dispatch received late Friday night from Greenville, S. C., in which Dr. Fred C. Williams, superintendent of the South Carolina state hospital, and Dr. James Fouché, of Columbia, S. C., both of whom were engaged by the department of justice to make an examination of the former producer, state that Carroll is in a nervous state which borders on insanity or possible suicide.

It is expected that the report which they will forward to Washington today will contain a recommendation for executive clemency on the part of President Coolidge. Both of the examining physicians bear the highest professional reputations in their communities and are believed to be skilled to be duped as to Carroll's actual condition.

Dr. McGeehe has been in attendance on Carroll since a week ago, and a week ago it was worse than the week previous," he said. "Naturally, something must be done to arrest the progress and it was for this reason that Mr. Carroll's own family and physicians not only welcomed the government examination but precipitated it and did everything to hasten it."

CAPTURED RUM CAR "SMOKES OUT" COPS

A rum car containing 186 gallons of "corn" which had been confiscated in an alleyway near Piedmont avenue, just south of Forrest avenue, early Friday morning "smoked out" the entire police squad in police lieutenant's office while being unloaded, as someone accidentally touched off the "smoke screen" attachment. The capture was made by Patrolmen Morgan, Coppenger, Ellis and Jones. Clouds of heavy smoke immediately rolled from under the big car, filling the alleyway and the lieutenant's office, causing great consternation among the entire squad of police. It was several minutes before the dense clouds of smoke cleared away.

WHEAT STREET CHURCH CONDUCTS TAG SALE

A city-wide tag sale will be conducted today to raise funds with which to complete construction work on the Wheat Street Baptist church, an institution with one of the largest congregations of any colored church in the country. The old church, destroyed in the fire of 1917, was the scene of the first interracial meeting held in the city after the race riots during 1907.

When the church burned, the congregation had financed and completed a $70,000 improvement on the building, while the same blaze claimed the only partially completed and it is homes and personal property of some 2,000 members. The new edifice is today's tag sale, officials said.

KING BEN'S AIDE TELLS OF AMOURS

BY EDWIN L. HECKLER.
St. Joseph, Mich., May 27.—(United News.)—Mrs. Esther Johnson Hansel, "King Ben" Purnell's erstwhile star missionary, aide and "first" and now star witness for the prosecution in the House of David dissolution suit here, told Friday of Ben's love intrigues, of extraordinary precautions against rape on the colony, and of hastily arranged wholesale marriages between boys and girls who had never met before.

Frankie against disgruntled cult members who threatened prosecution, "exiling" of girls to remote lumber camps when investigation seemed imminent, and further details of the amours of the gray-bearded and now feeble colony leader were described by Mrs. Hansel.

Ben feared raids. Benjamin lived in constant fear of raids, she said, and on one occasion, in 1916, he had four men shave their heads and spirit him away from the colony. The expected raid did not materialize.

Mrs. Hansel testified that in 1914 she arranged marriages for a group of 24 girl inmates of Shiloh, Ben's mission, while the girls were at High Island.

High Island, 40 miles from the mainland off Charlevoix, Mich., was inhabited by House of David boys and between 50 and 75 Indians. It was visited only by the colony star schooner and an occasional fisherman.

"I went to the island," said the witness, "and selected husbands for the girls."

Mrs. Hansel explained the mysterious "green lumber—dry lumber" telegram sent to the captain of the colony ship to "unload green lumber" at South Haven and bring the "dry lumber" through to Benton Harbor.

"Green lumber," she said, referred to 24 girls who were taken off the boat and brought to Benton Harbor in automobiles at 5 o'clock in the morning to be married. Mrs. Hansel asserted she was one of the group, marrying Horace Hannaford. At the same time, she said, a group of older women—"dry lumber"—were married to divert suspicion.

A secret booklet circulated among members of the colony, a copy of which she purloined before she abandoned the cult, was read into the record by Mrs. Hansel.

"This booklet is for war purposes only," was the opening injunction. "He that keepeth his mouth keepeth his life."

The booklet, according to the witness, directed the members what to say regarding their faith, and to lie on the witness stand if necessary. Special Prosecutor George E. Nichols read a memorandum purporting to have been written by Benjamin to Mrs. Hansel telling her in minute detail just what to testify in the courts in the event of prosecution.

"Colony Was Pure." Among other things, she said, officers of the cult and Purnell's confidantes were enjoined to say the colony's members all had signed affidavits that the colony was "pure." At one time, she added, about 50 members signed affidavits stating that no immorality existed. This was in 1914 or 1915 when dissenters were harassing the cult.

"Matters and fathers who resented the alleged mistreatment of their daughters were threatening to sue or to tell authorities," Mrs. Hansel testified. "I was given money and sent about to 'settle' these dissident members, confer with attorneys and prepare alibis and frame evidence in case of lawsuits."

"One of the members named Fortney, an aged man and father of two

Reception by King George FLIER TO BE WALES' GUEST AT BALL To Feature Lindbergh Visit

London, May 27.—(AP)—A reception by King George, who is eager to learn the story of the exploit which set the world ringing, is the outstanding item of a long list of engagements covering almost every minute of his few days' stay in England that will greet Captain Charles Lindbergh next week. Tuesday will be particularly crowded. The king will receive him in Buckingham palace in the forenoon and is likely to keep him talking quite a long time, as he is most keenly interested in the American's heroic adventure, the progress of which he had telephoned to Buckingham palace. It is even hinted that a high honor may be conferred on the captain.

Efforts were in vain, he found later, as the ambassador slept through his maneuvers. He also managed to see some of the spots of the city he has been prevented from seeing previously due to official entertainments. One of these was the Montmartre, where residents delighted in watching his early morning call. He also flew over the Eiffel Tower which is higher than the Woolworth building in New York.

Friendship for America. Lindbergh announced Friday night that he would return to France before sailing for the United States. "We came here knowing we could find friends," he said, "but little dreaming that we would receive this great welcome. I realize that the friendship shown is not for us alone, but that it is an expression of French sentiment for the land of my birth. I shall tell the people at home what the French people have done for me."

LINDBERGH FLIES TO BELGIUM TODAY BY RALPH HEINZEN.

Paris, May 27.—(United News.)—Airplane excursions, unwilling to lose sight of Captain Charles Lindbergh, will accompany him to Brussels when he takes off from Paris Saturday for his first meeting with a king.

Cut rates of 400 francs (approximately $20) were announced by commercial airplane companies Friday for the round trip by air to Belgium, thus assuring the American aviator of a company on his jaunt.

At Lindbergh's request the French military officials will send no escort with him. But observations made immediately after the cut-rate was posted indicated that the air travel between the two capitals Saturday morning to be married. Mrs. Hansel asserted she was one of the group, marrying Horace Hannaford. At the same time, she said, a group of older women—"dry lumber"—were married to divert suspicion.

A secret booklet circulated among members of the colony, a copy of which she purloined before she abandoned the cult, was read into the record by Mrs. Hansel.

"This booklet is for war purposes only," was the opening injunction. "He that keepeth his mouth keepeth his life."

The booklet, according to the witness, directed the members what to say regarding their faith, and to lie on the witness stand if necessary. Special Prosecutor George E. Nichols read a memorandum purporting to have been written by Benjamin to Mrs. Hansel telling her in minute detail just what to testify in the courts in the event of prosecution.

"Colony Was Pure." Among other things, she said, officers of the cult and Purnell's confidantes were enjoined to say the colony's members all had signed affidavits that the colony was "pure." At one time, she added, about 50 members signed affidavits stating that no immorality existed. This was in 1914 or 1915 when dissenters were harassing the cult.

"Matters and fathers who resented the alleged mistreatment of their daughters were threatening to sue or to tell authorities," Mrs. Hansel testified. "I was given money and sent about to 'settle' these dissident members, confer with attorneys and prepare alibis and frame evidence in case of lawsuits."

Reception by King George FLIER TO BE WALES' GUEST AT BALL To Feature Lindbergh Visit

London, May 27.—(AP)—A reception by King George, who is eager to learn the story of the exploit which set the world ringing, is the outstanding item of a long list of engagements covering almost every minute of his few days' stay in England that will greet Captain Charles Lindbergh next week. Tuesday will be particularly crowded. The king will receive him in Buckingham palace in the forenoon and is likely to keep him talking quite a long time, as he is most keenly interested in the American's heroic adventure, the progress of which he had telephoned to Buckingham palace. It is even hinted that a high honor may be conferred on the captain.

Efforts were in vain, he found later, as the ambassador slept through his maneuvers. He also managed to see some of the spots of the city he has been prevented from seeing previously due to official entertainments. One of these was the Montmartre, where residents delighted in watching his early morning call. He also flew over the Eiffel Tower which is higher than the Woolworth building in New York.

Friendship for America. Lindbergh announced Friday night that he would return to France before sailing for the United States. "We came here knowing we could find friends," he said, "but little dreaming that we would receive this great welcome. I realize that the friendship shown is not for us alone, but that it is an expression of French sentiment for the land of my birth. I shall tell the people at home what the French people have done for me."

Proposed Charter Revisions Would Abolish School Board And Reduce Size of Council

Details of Plans To Be Worked Out For Presentation to Summer Session of State Legislature

Abolition of the present school board and selection of another by city council, the city at large or appointed by the mayor and a substantial reduction of the number of council members are among charter revision matters to be considered at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon at a meeting of the charter revision committee of city council, it was announced Friday night by Dr. C. J. Vaughan, chairman.

school situation in Atlanta and create a legislative body which will not be unwieldy.

It is expected that some plan will be decided upon and submitted this summer to the state legislature for ratification.

Tentative plans call for establishment of six school districts composed of two wards each. One member of the board of education would be selected from each of the school districts. Plans are not yet definite as to how the selection shall be made. It has been suggested that they be voted on by the city at large, appointed by the mayor, elected by the district's vote alone or elected by vote of city council on nomination of council delegations from the wards included in the district.

Details Planned

Mayor Ragsdale Friday indicated that it was his plan to have details formulated by representatives of Fulton county delegation in the state legislature, members of the ordinance and charter revision committees of city council, representative citizens and other leaders.

A much-discussed proposal as to how council should be reduced is that only one member of council be selected from each ward by vote of that ward, and that one other member of council be selected from the school district by ballots of the city at large. This, it is pointed out, would form a council of 18 members, just half as large as the present body, and abolish the aldermanic board.

Another popular suggestion is that two members be named from each of the wards and that one member of an aldermanic board be selected from each of the proposed school districts. Some members of city council contend that the board of education should be summarily abolished and operation of schools be placed again under the school committee of city council. This, however, has a minority support.

"Extravagance" Blamed. Those holding this view claim that the financial crises through which Atlanta schools have passed is due to irresponsible members of the board adopting extravagant ideas which the city cannot afford.

All aid, of the opinion, according to reliable reports, that the mayor should be an ex-officio member of the board and have power to veto what he considers ill-advised appropriations.

Council members contend that closer cooperation and connection between school board and city officials is necessary in order that a more sympathetic understanding relative to the problems of each may be maintained. The only feasible way to do this is to have a representative from the city government on the board, it is contended, since problems and operation of schools is "too big a job to be undertaken by any councilmanic committee."

Other proposed changes in the charter would give the mayor more authority than at present, permit city council to elect all department heads, and levy a special school tax by establishing a school taxing zone for Atlanta and Fulton county. Several other minor changes also have been discussed.

KENNEDY HEADS COUNTY OFFICERS

Dr. J. R. Kennedy, of Statesboro, was elected president of the Georgia Association of County Commissioners at the closing session Friday of the thirtieth annual convention which has been held here for the past three days. Dr. Kennedy succeeds J. B. Jones, of Riechborn, Marion was chosen as the convention city for 1928.

Addresses which featured the Friday program of the convention were made by W. R. Neel, state highway engineer, and Dr. T. F. Abernethy, secretary of the state board of health. Other officers elected were H. E. Turner, Bryant, Ga., Richmond county, first vice president; W. H. Wright, Savannah, Chatham county, second vice president; Walter Stewart, Atlanta, Fulton county, commissioner, third vice president; G. B. Rogers, Cananda, Mitchell county, fourth vice president, and Fred Houser, secretary of the Atlanta Convention and Tourist Bureau, secretary and treasurer.

New Committee. Orrin Fincher, of Canton, Cherokee county, replaced G. B. Rogers on the executive committee; Frank Pittman, of Thomasville, Thomas county, succeeds G. B. Rogers, deceased, and J. R. Gay, Jay, of Meriwether county, succeeded Paul S. Etheridge. The other members of the committee who were unanimously selected were J. S. Dunn, chairman, Pike county, Macon; J. H. Griffith, Athens, Clarke county; F. M. Cates, Jr., Waynesboro, Burke county; H. C. Beasley, Reidsville, Tattall county; G. Gunby Jordan, Columbus, Muscogee county; and W. Tom Winn, Atlanta, Fulton county, ex-officio member.

Pointing out the benefits to be derived from public health work, Dr. Abernethy urged the county commissioners to establish health departments in every county and to use all the facilities that have been provided by the federal and state governments. The speaker also asked the commissioners to use their influence in obtaining a larger state appropriation for the work.

The report of Mr. Neel showed that the total mileage of the state highway system, on which distribution of gas tax is made, is 6,200 miles. The total length of bridges on the state system is 18,879.

"See Georgia week" enactment of legislation to eliminate grade crossings, legislative action permitting counties to pension aged employees and the public health program of the state board of health were endorsed in resolutions passed.

The visiting commissioners were entertained at luncheon at the Ansley hotel by the Ford Motor company and Ford dealers on the final day.

Time Limit Near in Third Week of 'Right-Ad' Contest

Ad writers have until 9 o'clock Monday morning to get their ads and ideas to the "Right-Ad" editor in time to be adjudged for the $50 cash and 120 other desirable prizes for the third week in The Constitution's Advertising Contest.

This $4,000 prize contest is open to everyone except newspaper employees and professional ad writers. Its purpose is to uncover new ideas in advertising. It is believed that the people for whom ads are written should know what appeals to them. New ideas are wanted, and for this reason no ideas, not technicalities, control the awards.

Readers can enter this contest any time during the next five weeks. There are no entrance requirements, and the only real restriction is that barring those who have an unfair advantage. Ads and ideas are wanted. They are to be submitted in written form, or drawn form—in fact, any way of presenting an idea on paper is suitable.

A surprise announcement of interest to all contestants will be made in the next few days, probably Monday. Watch for it!

1. The contest may be entered at any time merely by sending an advertising idea to the "Right-Ad" editor, The Atlanta Constitution.

2. Everyone may compete except professional ad writers and newspaper employees. This is an amateur contest for people who have never written advertising copy about any one advertiser or as many as you like. You may win any number of prizes.

3. Each ad submitted must be on a separate sheet of paper. Write on one side of the paper only—put your name and address on the other side. Put as many ads as you want in the same envelope.

4. The contest is under no obligation of any kind.

5. A different group of judges will be selected and announced each week from among Atlanta advertising men. The names of all prize winners will be published each week and some of the prize-winning ads reprinted.

6. $4,000 in Cash and Prizes. One hundred and twenty individual prizes will be awarded weekly—five prizes for the best ad in each advertising class.

7. Fifty dollars cash awarded weekly as a grand prize.

8. The grand cash prizes of $200, $200, $100 and $50 will be awarded for the four best ads in the contest.

9. (Copyright, 1925, Plonka & Plonka.)

Tips for contestants follow:

Avondale Estates. In the old days real estate men simply "staked out" their lots and offered them for sale. The purchaser bought nothing but the land.

Today when you buy a lot in Avondale Estates, the delightful addition that is free from the noise and dirt of the city, but close to the heart of things in minutes, you buy a great deal more than the area of the land represented. You buy a home in a land of carefree existence. You invest in property that is bound to increase greatly in value—property that is protected by various restrictions.

Eisenman's. At Eisenman's, the boys' department is located on the second floor. Here contestants will find boys' apparel to fit the 2-year-old, the young man of 20, and all ages in between.

The men who serve in the boys' department, taken together, have had 41 years' experience in this end of the clothing business and have arranged their department just such a way as to attract and please the boy. Bathing suits, hot weather suits and clothes for sports wear are suggested as subjects for this department.

Phillips & Crew. There is little wonder that the Steinway piano is so famous when we consider the fact that the Steinway & Sons Co. has been in the hands of the Steinway family since Henry Engelhard Steinway made the first Steinway piano in 1853.

For four generations the lineal descendants have worked and toiled to improve the construction and tone qualities of the Steinway piano. Through almost three-quarters of a century there has been in each generation a sense of pride in upholding the reputation of the instrument and its name.

George Moore Ice Cream Co. You have no doubt noticed that Moore's ice cream is "better than ever." This is an expression—a pledge—used by the George Moore Ice Cream company in its advertising.

After 36 years of surpassing quality Moore's ice cream is better than ever. Moore's ice cream is made from the richest sweet cream and pure fruit flavoring. Fresh fruits are always used when they are in season. Every worthwhile development in the science of ice cream manufacture is found at this plant. Visit the plant and see for yourself.

STUDENT ACCEPTS PRYOR STREET CALL

The Rev. Clarence W. Krebs, of Cold Springs, Ky., a student of the Atlanta Theological seminary, has accepted a call to fill the pulpit of the Pryor Street Presbyterian church, a supply pastor until September 1, officials of the church announced.

Mr. Krebs has shown an active interest in young people's work during the 14 months he has been a student at the seminary, and will take as his immediate objective the stimulation of the interest of the young people.

Mr. Krebs has been active in the city, and prior to his acceptance of the call to the Pryor Street Presbyterian church, was teacher of a Sunday school class at Capitol View Methodist.

The subjects announced for the Sunday services are "Your Task and Mine" and "The Folly of Being Foolish."

MEMORIAL EXERCISES AT MARIETTA MONDAY

With leaders from practically every military organization in the city present, the annual memorial day exercises will be held Monday at the National cemetery in Marietta under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic, assisted by the United States army, the United Confederate Veterans, United Spanish War Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars and Disabled American Veterans of the World War.

Charles R. Haskins, chairman of the Veterans' Memorial association, will have charge of arrangements. Orey Barnham Mitchell, past commander of the Atlanta post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will preside.

Others who will take part in the ceremonies include J. P. Hanson, U. S. W. V.; W. M. Scott, G. A. R.; General D. R. Freeman, U. C. V.; W. E. Tate, Disabled American Veterans; Fonville McWhorter, American Legion; and others. Members of the 22d Infantry band will furnish music.

Representatives of various Atlanta military organizations will leave the city in special cars of the Atlanta Northern railway. Colonel W. S. Wagner, of the Fourth Corps area, will be chief marshal for the procession.

Arrangements for the exercises will be made by the Pryor Street Presbyterian church.

FORMER EMORYITE WINS U. S. NAVAL ACADEMY PLACE

W. C. Norvell, of Grovetown, near Augusta, has successfully passed entrance examinations for the United States Naval academy and has been ordered to report at Annapolis on June 29, according to dispatches received here.

Mr. Norvell is a son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Norvell, of Grovetown. He is a graduate of Richmond Military academy, of Augusta, and later attended Emory university for two years. He then went to Blue Ridge, N. C., one year and attended Vanderbilt university for one year. He has recently completed a course at a naval preparatory school at Hampton Roads, Norfolk, Va.

During his two years at Emory university, Mr. Norvell was active in all of the school's activities and was well known throughout the city.

SON OF DR. STRATON IN DECATUR PULPIT

The Rev. Hilary Hawthorne Stratton, pastor of the New Britain Baptist church of Philadelphia and son of Dr. John Roach Stratton, noted minister of New York city, will preach next Sunday morning at the First Baptist church of Decatur in the absence of Dr. A. J. Moncrief, Sr., pastor, who is absent on a commencement engagement, according to announcement from the office of the church.

The Rev. Hilary Stratton is a young man with many characteristics and opinions like his father. He is preaching for the first time in Decatur, where he once made his home for a short time. He is in the south visiting Dr. Moncrief's son, Rev. Arthur Jarrett Moncrief, Jr., his friend and former college mate.

The Rev. Adiel J. Moncrief, Jr., who is to deliver the commencement sermon in Palmerton, will return to Decatur to preach at the evening service. The services will be held at 11 o'clock and 8 o'clock.

Business Men Should Aid Farmer, Power Head Tells Brunswick Citizens

Brunswick, Ga., May 27.—(Special.)—Georgia's most vital need today is the cooperation of business and industry men with the farmers, in solving the problem of efficient production and orderly marketing of farm products. H. M. Atkinson, chairman of the board of directors, Georgia Power company, declared in an address here today at a joint meeting of the Young Men's club and the forum club, that the Georgia Board of Trade at the Oglethorpe hotel.

Hudler Brown, president of the Young Men's club, presided at the meeting and E. E. Tenny introduced Mr. Atkinson.

Mr. Atkinson dwelt at length on the fact that Georgia's future development depends almost entirely upon cooperation of farmers, bankers and business men towards a solution of the agricultural problem of the state. He also said that he hoped the day was not far distant when every community and every farm would be supplied with all the electrical energy needed.

Power cannot be made available generally overnight, he said, but the day is coming when electrification of farms will be a reality in Georgia. Progress already is being made along this line. Further, the industrial and agricultural developments of Georgia will go along hand in hand. The power available to the small community as a result of the recent consolidation of a number of Georgia companies is stimulating the decentralization of industry by supplying all towns with the same quality of service. The availability of power in quantities to attract new businesses already is starting on a new path to speed the industrialization of the state.

Healed at last easily and quickly

Brooklyn, N. Y., July 28:—"For months all my fingers on both hands were covered with red, itching sores. They frequently gave out a watery fluid, and that, together with the terrible itching, made life almost unbearable. As my business necessitated having my hands in water a great deal, the suffering was made even worse. Doctors diagnosed my case as chronic eczema, but none of the prescribed salves helped me. Finally I began to use Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap. Now, after using two jars of this Ointment I am glad to say I am rid of my skin trouble and my hands are perfectly clear."—(Signed) J. Girl 2-Years-Old Dies After Sleep Of Three Months

Prattville, Ala., May 27.—(AP)—A 15-week battle, silently waged by a two-year-old baby girl, ended early this morning with death in her sleep.

When little Margaret Cook, a victim of leishmaniasis, a disease which had been a pest since the malarial attack, died, for more than three months the child was in a profound slumber. All efforts to arouse her having been unsuccessful.

The little girl died as she lay in the stroller from which she never stirred. The only sign of life in her tiny body was her regular breathing and a slight flush of her cheeks. She was nourished by milk and water administered in a medicine bottle. Yesterday morning hope for her recovery was revived when she took an unusual amount of nourishment and her eyes were noticeably brighter.

The illness of the baby was said by physicians to have been provoked by a severe attack of influenza. Having recovered from the influenza attack, she played as usual with the other children in the neighborhood, apparently in perfect health.

Within a few days paralysis of the left arm developed and it was feared she was a victim of infantile paralysis.

Not until the growing symptoms of leishmaniasis, a tropical disease, appeared, did the true nature of her illness become apparent.

FIVE MEN SLAIN IN MINE EXPLOSION

Trinidad, Col., May 27.—(AP)—Five men were killed at the Delagua mine, 12 miles from here, today when an explosion occurred in No. 3 shaft. The explosion blew the opening of the mine and broke windows out of nearby buildings.

One hundred and twenty-seven other miners at work escaped through an airshaft at the other end of the mine. The mine is owned by the Victor American Fuel company.

They were John Walker, George Cass, Charles Deluca, August Carpio and William Goodell. The explosion, believed to have been caused by ignited coal dust, occurred at 12:40 p. m. Rescue crews were sent to the mine and from there started clearing the shaft in which the explosion took place. The bodies of the five men were brought out late today.

The 127 miners who escaped through an airshaft were working in another part of the mine and did not know of the explosion. They knew nothing of what happened until they were told by their foremen to go out through the shaft.

LAND IS REPORTED IN LOW CONDITION AT HOSPITAL HERE

Fort E. Land, state superintendent of schools, who was taken to Wesley Memorial hospital Wednesday, following a collapse Monday night in Carrollton, was not resting so well late Friday afternoon, according to hospital officials. His condition was "very poor" on the hospital reports.

Mr. Land collapsed late Monday night in his room at a Carrollton hotel, shortly after he had delivered the commencement address at the Carrollton High School. He was removed to Wesley Memorial hospital Wednesday night.

Physicians report that he is suffering from pneumonia poisoning.

INFANT RECOVERING AFTER AUTO MISHAP

Donald Stewart, two-year-old son of W. B. Stewart, of Hapeville, Fulton county commissioner, was treated at Georgia Baptist hospital Friday night for minor injuries received when he was knocked down by an automobile being backed from the garage by the child's older brother, William.

The child was given a thorough examination for possible internal injuries and allowed to return to his home.

Charles Erbstein, Soldier, Lawyer, Bon Vivant, Dies

WORRY OVER FLOOD SUFFERERS IS CAUSE

Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution. Chicago, Ill., May 27.—Charles E. Erbstein, famous criminal and divorce lawyer, radio owner and operator, author and bon vivant, died suddenly today at his home, a martyr, in a manner of speaking, to the Mississippi floods. The distress of the thousands of homeless people down the valley impressed Mr. Erbstein deeply and he gave his entire attention and much money for their relief. He was the owner of station WTAS and two weeks ago he jumped into the matter of broadcasting conditions in the south and pleas for relief, with all his dynamic personality. Removing his coat and vest, he entered the studio of WTAS and conducted an all-night drive for funds. Three hours later he was at the microphone, his face pale, his voice hoarse, and he was compelled to relinquish the task to others and go to bed. He never recovered from the collapse. On Thursday pneumonia was indicated and his decline from that time was rapid. Mr. Erbstein was 49 years old and one of Chicago's most unique characters. He had a hectic career at the bar and amassed a fortune despite attacks upon his methods and even indictments and criminal court trials from which he escaped.

Peachtree Gardens Makes Debut To Capacity Crowd

Inaugurating a new and pleasing entertainment feature in Atlanta, "Peachtree Gardens," the smart supper club on Okladale boulevard, Friday night drew a capacity crowd for the first time to the public with an elaborate dinner followed by a number of diverting cabaret acts.

The formal dinner was given by a capacity attendance of Atlantans who enjoyed the dinner, danced on the splendid club floor, and applauded the five big acts brought here for the occasion by L. P. Kilgore, managing director of Peachtree Gardens.

Music was supplied by Charles DeBergers orchestra, which came to Atlanta from New York and which in one night established itself in the estimation of Atlanta as one of the most gifted groups of symphonists in the country.

Harry Moon, the former master of ceremonies of New York's "Silver Slipper," introduced the acts, and music everywhere felt at home with the running fire of wit and good humor, and Maibelle Boyer, of the Chicago Civic Opera company, was enthusiastic in her devotion to a number of delightful vocal numbers.

Rene and Foll, who came here from Davis Island and Coral Gables, Florida, and who were the featured dancers, which were particularly effective in the magnificent setting of "Peachtree Gardens." Another talented singer on the program was

Gesture of Friendship By America for France Expected in Near Future

Expression Will Be Result of Ovation Given by All France to Greatest Flier of U. S.

BY RAYMOND CLAPPER.
Washington, May 27.—(United News).—An expression from this government of renewed friendship for France may soon be forthcoming as the climax to the wave of friendly feeling reawakened by the heroic flight of Captain Lindbergh.

This expression probably will take the form of a personal letter from Secretary of State Kellogg to Robert Underwood Johnson, former American ambassador to Italy, who has urged the United States to negotiate a new treaty of enduring peace with France. Johnson's suggestion was prompted by the statement of French Foreign Minister Briand favoring such a treaty with America.

Overturn of Sentiment.
Rarely has there been such a sudden overturn of public sentiment in two countries as has occurred in the United States and France within the last week following the landing of Captain Lindbergh.

The two countries had been drifting apart gradually since the armistice. There were sharp cleavages during the peace conference and President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau were sharply in dispute many times. Differences appeared at the Washington arms conference. This country was displeased at the French invasion of Ruhr, although official expressions of disapproval were withheld. The debt negotiations had deepened the chasm. Periodic outbreaks over this question had since then increased until feeling in some months ago Americans were hostile to Paris.

The French were in such a state of mind toward America that when their two fliers, Nungesser and Gali, were lost, an attempt was made in Paris to play on the ill feeling toward America with the result that Ambassador Herriot advised the state department that American flights to Paris be delayed for the time being.

Apprehension Felt.
Even when Captain Lindbergh took off for Paris there were apprehensions as to how he would be received. But from the moment his little monoplane swung into the lights of Le Bourget field it was evident that any feeling that existed was not deep. The deluge of friendly well-wishes that has been heaped upon the young American flier in Paris has reawakened in America the old feeling for France which has been dormant in bringing the United States into the war.

This development, it can be stated positively, is a cause for keenest gratification in official circles here. The United States has nothing to gain from incurring the ill will of France and on the contrary has a very real interest in keeping the friendship of that country. American officials in insisting upon payment of the debt are not moved by any desire to squeeze a friendly country but only by a deep feeling of unescapable responsibility to American citizens who in the end must pay whatever is cancelled. Minor disputes such as over the German cables taken during the war involve no serious controversy.

Briand's proposal for a treaty of enduring peace with America has not been brought as an official step so far as can be learned here. It is a question whether his government would feel such a treaty is necessary in view of the fact that the friendly regard of the United States for France already is embodied in the Franco-American treaty of 1917 for advancement of peace. This treaty continues indefinitely until one year after either party has abrogated it. It provides for submission to a commission of disputes not settled by diplomacy or arbitration.

Many Elaborate Crystal Gazer Costumes Issued Taken in South After Chase

Memphis, May 27.—(AP)—Reports to the United States marshal's office here told of the capture near Savannah, Tenn., today of C. L. Harrington, alias "Dr. M. C. Darling," a magician and crystal gazer who has been sought for many months on a charge of impersonating a government officer.

Harrington was wanted by the government for his alleged impersonation of a prohibition officer. He is alleged to have moved in Tennessee, Arkansas and Mississippi.

Harrington was captured as he was about to board a bus near Savannah, Tenn. He was arrested by W. R. Wright and J. H. Haggard, deputy marshals, who were due to arrive in Memphis with their prisoner tonight.

Numerous efforts have been made to capture Harrington and the famous government agent, Blaine Danley, who won national-wide prominence when he captured Martin Durkin, the Chicago gambler, was sent to this territory to arrest the magician. Upon one occasion, federal authorities revealed today, Harrington was arrested by a federal agent and handcuffed, but he brought his magic into play, slipped the manacles from his wrist and escaped.

Wool Demand Price Increases, Says Bulletin

Boston, May 27.—(AP)—The Commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say: "There is a broader demand for wool and the tendency of prices is upward both here and in the west. The call has been principally for the finer qualities. This reflects better demand for goods."

"Heavy buying has been the rule in Texas, Nevada, Utah and Oregon, with some activity in Wyoming at prices substantially higher than the February contract levels, while 33 to 35 cents is the general price level through the bright wool states."

"Foreign markets are firm, with fine wools slightly higher."

"Molair is steady."

"The rate on water shipments of wool from Boston from January 1, 1927, to May 26, 1927, inclusive, were 76,392,000 pounds against $2,848,000. The receipts from January 1, 1927, to May 26, 1927, inclusive, were 129,075,300 pounds against 164,533,657 pounds for the same period last year."

Engineers Survey Indian Springs Plot After Park Suggestion

Jackson, Ga., May 27.—(Special).—A corps of engineers are engaged in a survey of the state property at Indian Springs in line with the movement to turn the state reserve of 10 acres into a state park. A map has been prepared and from this a landscape gardener will make a complete topographical map of Indian Springs, showing the premises in the present condition and outline the improvements to be made.

The Jackson Woman's club started the movement for a state park on the reservation and this has been endorsed by the district and state federations of women's clubs. The general assembly will be asked for an appropriation to beautify and improve the grounds. It has also been suggested that the Indian museum be built at Indian Springs in memory and honor of the Red Men. There is nothing of this kind in the entire United States, it is stated.

UNION SECRETARY ACQUITTED OF CHARGES

St. Louis, May 27.—(AP)—Harry Jones, 34, for 12 years secretary-treasurer of the International Association of Bridge, Structural and Ornamental Iron Workers, was acquitted of a charge of embezzlement today. He specifically was charged with embezzling $500, although auditors reported discrepancies in his books of $27,000.

Jones testified the money was used for strike promotional purposes in New York city and the transactions were deliberately disguised. He was cleared when he flew from Yps to St. Louis in an uninterrupted series of lands and mentioned his visits to Brussels, where he was a guest at the palace, charming all the royal family by his gallant bearing and good humor.

SCHOOL BUILDING PLANS STUDIED

The Atlanta board of education Friday went into an exhaustive study of construction projects contemplated with funds to be derived from sale of the $3,500,000 school allocation in the $8,500,000 bond issue, set up an architectural fund of $40,000 to complete plans and decided to hold an special session of the board next Tuesday at 2 o'clock at Walker Street school.

R. R. Ritchie, assistant superintendent of schools, in charge of business affairs, presented a program which called for two projects not authorized in the first $1,000,000 to be expended and the extra session is planned to settle definitely just what should be included in the second $1,000,000 which will be available July 1.

He asked that the board authorize working plans for the additions to the first $1,000,000 and Mr. Ritchie recommended that the board approve some definite projects for the second $1,000,000 as soon as possible in order that materials may be purchased in bulk and architectural fees reduced.

The last five mentioned buildings could be constructed with practically no additional architectural costs since they have been planned along the same standardized drawings.

A committee composed of Dr. R. M. Edwards, president of the board; G. Lloyd, president, architect; Mr. Ritchie, W. D. Hoffman, William C. State, and W. A. Hancock, chairman of the contract committee of the Atlanta bond commission, as an advisory member, will decide what heating system will be installed in the new buildings to be constructed from bond funds.

Ray D. Warren, member of the board from the tenth, became concerned for Stewart Avenue school when it developed that plans for building several of the schools at the same time are in process, and delivered an ultimatum to the board to the effect that none of the schools would be constructed unless Stewart Avenue is included in the very first lot. He was backed by several other members of the board, but after an explanation that the institution in question was included, declared he had misunderstood the program.

Mrs. Julia O'Keefe Nelson, member of the board from the sixth ward, registered an objection when a delegation of negroes from the 11th ward appeared seeking beginning of work as soon as possible on "Carrie Steele school."

GARY IS SILENT ON 70,000-ACRE COAL PURCHASE

New York, May 27.—(AP)—"No comment to make" was the brief statement today from Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation, in reference to reports that the corporation planned the purchase of 70,000 acres of river coal land from the Pittsburgh Coal company for $20,000,000.

Rumors that the steel corporation also was buying stock of the coal company in the open market were dismissed yesterday by Chairman Gary with the assertion "nothing to it."

Swimming Year Opens Today at City Parks

BY TOM THOMPSON.
How's your backstroke? No? Well, today's the day the season to improve it begins! The city of Atlanta officially recognizes the season of Jantzen and Bradley by throwing open the five municipal pools for white folks and the one municipal pool for colored.

The swimming year begins! And in more than one way. One of the things that will be outstanding among the year's aquatic achievements is the weekly swimming meets to be held by the Atlanta Parks department assisted by The Constitution. There will be 15 of these twice-a-week meets, the first will be staged Saturday, but more about that in Sunday's Constitution.

Then there will be the swimmer on Labor day. That is scheduled to be the swimmers' day.

The Big Meet.
It is the day of The Constitution's annual swimming meet, which this year will be held under Amateur Athletic union auspices with proper registrations and city records established. That, however, is in no particular manner connected with the opening today, except that important events and their shadows before. Somebody said something like that once, anyway.

The pools that will be opened today, in fact all the municipal pools Atlanta has, are Piedmont, Grant Park, Madrox park, Moxley and Oakland Park. The negro pool is Washington park.

The following hours have been designated for operation of the pools during the coming summer: In the morning and close at 10:30. Then they will be opened at 2:30 o'clock and closed at 9 o'clock in the evening. On Monday schedule is 5 to 9 o'clock of a morning and 2:30 o'clock of an afternoon until around sundown.

In addition to the opening of the pools, the parks also will be formally opened for the summer season, and announcement came from L. L. Wallis, chief of the parks and playgrounds, that all concessions will be free for the day.

So golfers, tennis sharks and hundreds seeking free rides on the new Shelland ponies will be in evidence taking advantage of the opening and the free use of terra firma and equipment.

Playgrounds will be formally opened June 15, but Mr. Wallis added a warning to motorists to observe carefully all speed regulations of parks in order to prevent possible injury to babies of the city, and to make the municipally operated play centers safe for the youngsters.

A gala day is in store for young and sporting Atlantans and the long hot afternoon will be cooler for hundreds who today will visit the bathing pools.

GARDEN HILLS POOL WILL MAKE DEBUT.
The beautiful Garden Hills Swimming Pool also will be operated by the Garden Hills riding and swimming club.

No effort or expense has been spared to make this pool one of the finest and best equipped swimming pools in the entire south. The formal opening today will be an important event for all north side lovers of water sports. Music will be furnished on the pool. The Garden Hills swimming pool will be in operation until June 1 the pool will be open to all north side property owners and residents, but after this date admission to the pool will be by card only.

Every facility and equipment has been added to the pool to make it desirable in every respect. It is of solid concrete construction with a spacious pavilion and bath houses immediately adjoining.

The pool is located at the intersection of Rumson road and Pine Tree drive in one of the most picturesque settings of the beautiful Garden Hills community. It is a most entirely new, rounded by huge original growth trees, although much shrubbery and flowers have been added to enhance the charm of its appearance.

125 ALABAMA CONVICT-MINERS TO WORK ROADS

Birmingham, Ala., May 27.—(AP)—One hundred and twenty-five Alabama convicts will leave coal mines and be put to work on state highways June 1, in accordance with the legislative act abolishing the convict lease system.

The men will leave privately owned mines at Weaga, it has been announced, and will be sent to Newbern for highway work.

By act of the legislature all Alabama convicts must be removed from coal mines by September 1, 1928.

LANDLORD HURLS BRICK AT NURSE; SHE KILLS HIM

Baltimore, Md., May 27.—(AP)—Miss Mabel Swan, formerly a nurse here, today confessed, Garrett county, Maryland, authorities said, that she shot and killed her landlord, Daniel Mosser, of Keyser, W. Va., yesterday when he threw a brick at her. The position of the tragedy was the culmination of a feud over reported liquor making by the woman. Miss Swan rented a farm at Swanton, Md., near the West Virginia line.

Rescue Crew Saved As Boat Overturns Seeking Companion

Savannah, Ga., May 27.—(AP)—Fragrant wireless messages intercepted here from the British steamship St. Augustine, which had picked up several men overboard. The position of the vessel and other details were lacking.

BOAT OVERTURNS NEAR ST. AUGUSTINE

St. Augustine, Fla., May 27.—(AP)—In attempting to rescue a man overboard late last night, a boat of the British steamer St. Augustine, throwing the seven occupants in the water, according to radio advice here. Both the man who fell overboard and the others were rescued, however. No names were given in the reports.

The steamer's position at the time was given as 28.18 N., 79.35 W., or just north, some distance off Jupiter.

DADE HIGH SCHOOL ENDS SPRING TERM

Rising Fawn, Ga., May 27.—(Special).—The closing exercises of the Dade County High School, at Trenton, concluded Wednesday evening in an auditorium with the graduation of six students. This is one of the youngest high schools in Georgia and this was the first graduating class.

J. O. Martin, of the state department of education, delivered the literary address. Speeches were also made by G. F. Futch, principal, and S. J. Hale, commissioner of education for Dade county.

Continued fair weather is predicted for Atlanta and vicinity during the next few days, according to C. E. von Herrmann, local meteorologist. The temperatures for today are not expected to vary materially from those of Friday, when low and high marks of 60 and 85, respectively, were recorded.

There is no rain in sight, according to Mr. von Herrmann, and Sunday should be another fine, clear day.

PRESIDENTS TO HEAR DR. JOHN H. FINLEY

Dr. John Huston Finley, editor of The New York Times, will be the guest and principal speaker at a dinner meeting of the Presidents' club Tuesday night at 7 o'clock at the Grand Hotel.

LEGION DELEGATES WILL BE HONORED BY ATLANTA POST

Atlanta post of the American Legion will give its delegation to the state department convention at Savannah a rousing reception and send-off with a dance on the roof of the Atlanta Athletic club next Saturday night, June 4, it was announced Friday at the weekly luncheon in the Henry Grady hotel.

Delegates are to be elected at a formal post meeting next Friday night in the chamber of commerce and the dance will take place on the following night. Membership of 1,300, the largest in the history of the post, will give Atlanta 52 representatives at the state convention.

Sam Johnson addressed the luncheon meeting on "Success," designating honesty, loyalty, perseverance, reliability, enthusiasm and energy as its requisites. Mrs. Bob Cunningham, who, before her marriage was a teacher in a Korean school, was the featured entertainer, presenting a recital of Korean songs in the native costume of the country. C. M. Boyer presided as luncheon chairman.

Baptist Mission Board To Meet Here Tuesday

The annual meeting of the home mission board of the Southern Baptist convention will be held at the First Baptist church, Tuesday, May 31, according to announcement by officials of the organization.

The financial budget for home missions covering the next twelve months will be the principal topic of discussion at the Tuesday meeting. Representatives from each of the seven states comprising the convention are expected to be present. Dr. Warren Mosley Seay, pastor of West End Baptist church, is president, and Dr. B. D. Gray is corresponding secretary of the home board. Members of the state home board include: C. W. Duke, Florida; J. E. Briggs, District of Columbia; E. L. Atwood, Tennessee; C. W. Elsey, Kentucky; J. M. Thomas, Alabama; C. H. Durham, North Carolina; J. M. Anderson, Texas; E. V. Lamb, Missouri; E. P. J. Garrett, Arkansas; W. A. McComb, Mississippi; B. A. G. Ozols, South Carolina; M. A. Wood, Georgia; W. W. Hamilton, Louisiana.

SUPERINTENDENT IS GIVEN PARTY BY BEGINNERS

The beginners' department of the Second Baptist Sunday school will entertain John S. Smiling, superintendent, with a birthday party this afternoon at 3 o'clock on the lawn of Mrs. W. B. DuVall on Cascade avenue. Miss Rosa May King is departmental superintendent.

Dr. Charles W. Daniel, pastor of the First Baptist church, who has been a member of the local board of the executive committee of the Southern Baptist convention, and because of the rule prohibiting the holding of two denominational offices simultaneously by one person, has been replaced on the local board by Dr. L. R. Christie, pastor of the Pine de Leon Baptist church. The local board includes John M. Green, E. L. Connally, E. C. McConnell, W. H. Major, H. M. Willett, E. L. Harting, W. M. Seay, Mrs. W. P. Anderson, Mrs. George Westmoreland, J. L. Jackson, L. M. Goffield, S. A. Cowan, W. H. Finner, E. S. Edwards, W. H. Houghton, W. L. Cutts and L. R. Christie.

ABERCROMBIE URGES HEALTH LAW SUPPORT

Citing notable reductions in the death rate in the Georgia counties maintaining full time public health service under the board of health, Dr. T. F. Abercrombie, secretary of the state board of health, urged members of the Association of County Commissioners, in session here Friday, to establish such service in all counties large enough to support it and to support the plan of the state department for an increase in its annual appropriation to help extend it to counties too small to support it entirely out of local funds.

Bartow county's death rate was reduced from 15 to 5 per year in four years of public health work, Mitchell county from 12 to none, Clarke county's from 6 to 1 and Walker county's from 4 to 1, from typhoid fever alone, he said. The typhoid death rate of the state at large was reduced 3 per cent while in counties maintaining local public health work the reduction was 18 per cent. Glynn county reduced deaths from all causes by 33 per cent. Dr. Abercrombie also pointed out that the state tuberculosis sanatorium at Alto, established to serve the entire state, can only be operated at less than one-half the capacity of the new sanatorium on the present appropriation, requiring $250,000 a year instead of the present allowance of $100,000 to make all beds available to white plague sufferers. The commissioners were urged to send representatives from each county board to the state health congress in Macon June 9.

NINETY APPLICANTS TAKE C. P. A. TEST

Four states were represented in a list of 90 applicants for license as certified public accountants in an examination by the state board of examiners of public accountants held at the capitol Friday. It was the largest class of applicants ever examined by the board, according to M. H. Barnes, of Savannah, and C. R. Dawson, of Atlanta, who conducted the examination. The four states represented were Georgia, Florida, Alabama and Illinois.

TWO WILL FACE ELECTRIC CHAIR ON NEXT FRIDAY

Unless respite is obtained, two electrocutions will take place next Friday at the state prison in Milledgeville. V. L. Stanley, secretary of the state prison commission, said Friday. The men to face the electric chair on June 3 are M. M. Gore, of Fulton county, and Herbert Fennell, a negro, of Liberty county. Both were convicted of murder. Fennell has already been placed in the death cell. B. H. Dunaway, prison superintendent, informed the prison commission yesterday. Attorneys for the condemned negro will go before the prison commission and the governor early next week in an effort to have his sentence commuted. It was learned today. Superintendent Dunaway reported that he also holds death warrants for three other men, two of whom, Mose Parker, of Pike county, and J. H. Shepherd, of Fulton county, were recently granted respite. Shepherd was originally sentenced to the May 27. The other death warrant is for Jack Lance, of Fulton county, who is to go to the chair on June 17. He was sentenced to death for the murder of Bert Donaldson, crack sleuth on the staff of Solicitor General John A. Boykin. No electrocutions have been held in this state since late last fall, when attorneys for Gore raised the question of the legality of the electric chair. The constitutionality of the law has now been affirmed by the supreme court.

CARAWAY RITES WILL TAKE PLACE SUNDAY

Funeral services for Samuel W. D. Caraway, 74, a deputy in the city marshal's office, who died of a heart attack Thursday afternoon, will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Jackson Hill Baptist church. Rev. R. K. Redwine will officiate and interment will be in West View cemetery. Mr. Caraway was foreman of the Christian Index composing room for 25 years, leaving that post six years ago to take a place in the marshal's office. Mr. Caraway was an active member of the Jackson Hill Baptist church, serving as deacon for a number of years. He was a member of the Atlanta Typographical Union, No. 48, and the Atlanta lodge No. 59, F. & A. M.

INDICT MAON NEGRO AS TRAIN WRECKER

Ed Madison, 31, negro, of Macon, was indicted Friday by the Fulton grand jury on a felony charge in connection with the wrecking of a Southern freight train at Roseland station on May 16. Madison, a discharged section hand, was arrested on May 17 by Special Officer C. O. Bowman, of the Central of Georgia railway, while walking through the Whitehall street underpass. A pistol was found on his person when arrested. The negro is said to have confessed to having placed a concrete block on the track, intending it for a fast Florida passenger train. No casualties resulted from the wrecking of the freight train but several cars were derailed. In addition to the indictment charging train wrecking, Madison was named in three other indictments. Two charged burglary in connection with the theft of tickets and other valuable papers from the ticket office of the Southern at Roseland station and with entering the warehouse of C. L. C. Thomas. A third indictment charged carrying concealed weapons.

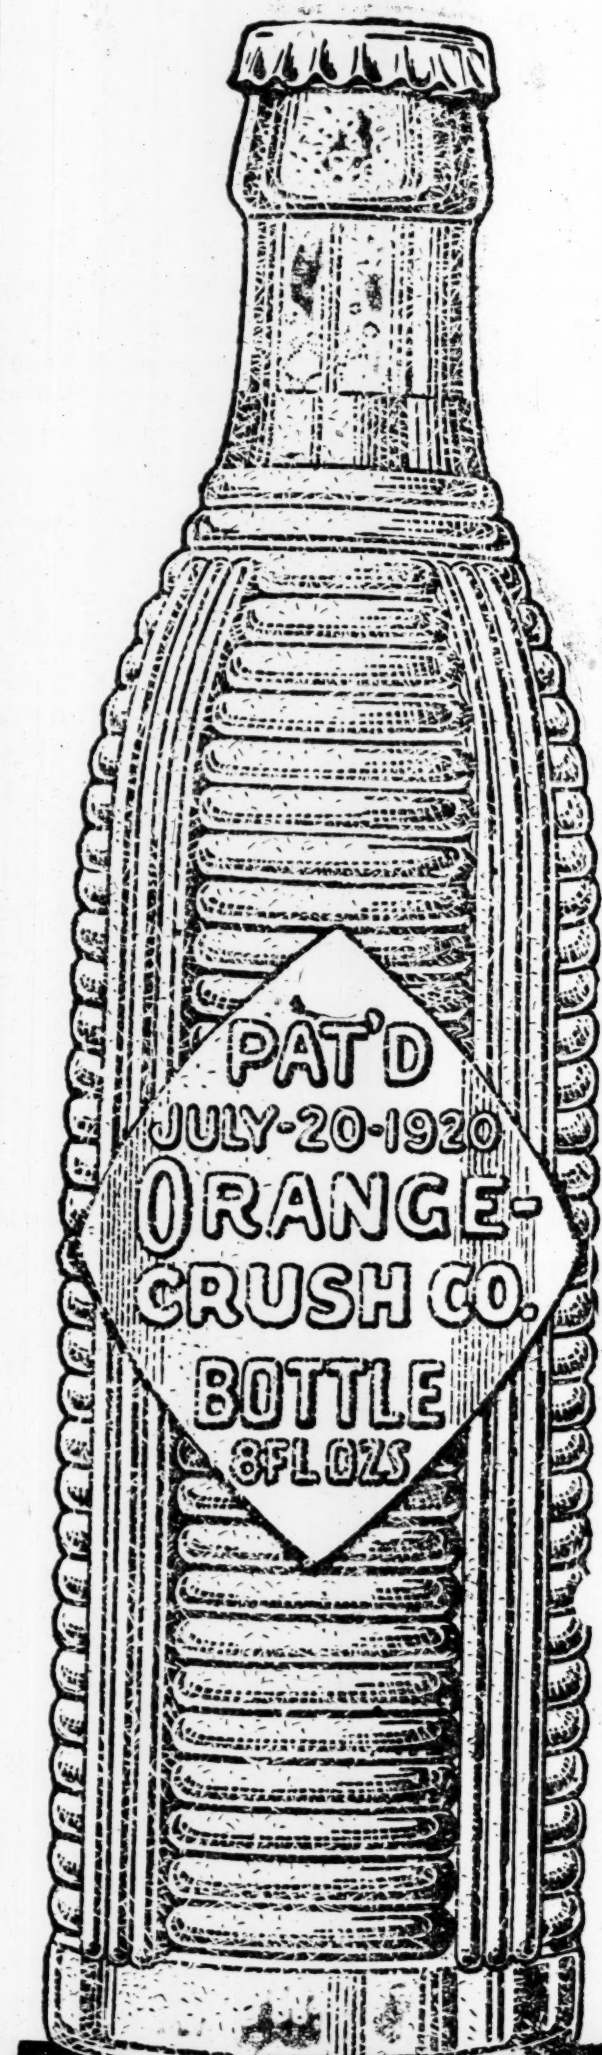

Bonita Company Will Manufacture New Powdered Soap

The Bonita Products company, under the management of Claude Williams, well-known realtor with temporary office and warehouse at 1401 Madison street, announces that plans are under way to manufacture a high-grade super soap known as Bonita powdered soap. The current problem has been solving the southern housewife more and more every year, and the Bonita Products company has been casting about trying to discover a complete household cleanser that the housewife could use for laundering, dishwashing and general cleaning without coarsening the hands or injuring delicate fabrics, a product that would clean the grime and coarsest fabrics with a small amount of labor. This seemed a hopeless task, but an accident a product was discovered in the east that attracted unusual attention on account of its sevenfold uses and merit. Among other outstanding qualities, it will do twice as much cleansing as a like amount of any other soap on the market. A pound of this powdered soap poured into a gallon of boiling water, upon cooling will form nine pounds of rich, soft soap. The formula for making this product has been in existence for 125 years and so far no other article has come to light that can equal it. Mr. Williams says, "Unfortunately for the housewife, the manufacturer who accidentally discovered this complete cleanser did not have the capital to finance it except in a limited way in the east. The Bonita Products company, after having some five hundred Atlanta housewives try this wonderful soap to their delight and satisfaction, is now placing it on sale in all Piggly Wiggly stores as well as with other leading merchants in Atlanta and the outlying cities and towns."

TYPO UNION WILL HONOR DEPARTED MEMBERS SUNDAY

Annual memorial services of Atlanta Typographical Union, No. 48, will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Oakland cemetery in tribute to the departed members of that organization as a part of national exercises by the union. Dr. Charles P. McLaughlin, pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer; Jerome Jones, prominent labor leader; James A. Holloman, of The Constitution, and Luther H. Still, president of the union, will be principal speakers. Graves of departed members of the organization will be decorated by the woman's auxiliary. Five members, V. J. Lindstrom, George S. McVee, J. Thomas Perry, George E. Ruppelt and S. W. Caraway, have died during the past 12 months.

Beasley-Kiser Wedding To Feature Calendar Today

Although taking place in a sister state, Florida, the marriage of Miss Edith Cofield Beasley of Sarasota, Fla., to Marion Columbus Kiser, of Atlanta, is of paramount interest to social circles here, uniting as it does one of the oldest Atlanta families with the equally distinguished one of this Sarasota belle. The marriage will be solemnized late this afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Myrick Beasley, in Sarasota.

Replete with parties for the sweet girl graduate and the June bride, the calendar today is of especial interest to the younger social contingent. Miss Dorothy Lockridge, charming bride-elect, will be entertained by Miss Mildred Bawel this afternoon at a bridge party at the East Lake Country club. Miss Marion Weekes will give a bridge-tee at her home in honor of another of those charming bride-elects, Miss Estelle Lawson Gardner, who are choosing the final week-end of May for their most delightful prenuptial affairs.

Among the list of brides of June must be included Miss Elizabeth M. Jones, who will be entertained at a party by Miss Mildred Bawel; Miss Fannie Davis, who will be the honoree at a bridge-luncheon given by Mrs. Howard Jones at her home on St. Charles avenue; and Miss Ruth Beckham, for whom Miss Charlotte Robertson and Mrs. A. A. Green will entertain with a luncheon this afternoon.

Marking the first display of its kind to be held in the High Museum, the Atlanta Art association is holding its preview of the annual spring exhibition of paintings by its artist auxiliary, held daily from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock.

With characteristic appreciation of the time and the season the Blackfriars of Agnes Scott college will present "As You Like It" at 8:30 o'clock in the Bucher Scott gymnasium. Dancing students, piano pupils and young dramatic artists are also playing their part in the city's whirl of commencement activities.

Prenuptial Parties For Miss Woolley Are Cancelled

The series of lovely, prenuptial parties planned in compliment to Miss Mary Virginia Woolley, charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Price Woolley, whose wedding to Dr. George Tryon Harding, III, of Worthington, Ohio, is scheduled to take place Thursday evening, June 2, have been called off, on account of illness in the groom-elect's family.

Miss Woolley left Atlanta Friday morning for Worthington, Ohio, where she will join her fiancé, Dr. Harding, at the bedside of his father, Dr. George T. Harding, Jr., who is recovering from a long illness.

The groom-elect who has been attending the Medical Evangelist college in Loma Linda, Calif., is en route to Worthington. He will receive his degree in medicine at the graduating exercises to be held Sunday evening, though he will not be present to receive his diploma.

Any change in the wedding plans will be announced later.

Shakespearean Play At Agnes Scott College.

One of the foremost features of commencement week at Agnes Scott college will be the presentation of Shakespeare's "As You Like It" Saturday evening, May 28, at 8:30 o'clock.

This comedy is one of the most entertaining, picturesque and universally loved of Shakespeare's plays and it will be produced with unusual success under the direction of Mr. Frances K. Gooch, dramatic instructor of the college.

The carefully chosen cast will include the following roles: The gallant Orlando will be played by Miss Roberta Winter, of Leland, Miss.; Mary Sayward, of Decatur, will take the part of Rosalind and Elizabeth M. Cofield, of Atlanta, will impersonate Celia; the part of melancholy Jacques will be played by Miss Marion Green, of Asheville, N. C., and that of the Banished Duke by Miss Margaret Keith, of Greenville, S. C.

These characterizations will be set off by rich and handsome costumes and a picturesque background of woodland scenery especially designed for the production. Seats for the entertainment will be on sale at the door of the gymnasium-auditorium on Saturday night, May 28, at 8 o'clock.

Miss Caroline Selden Gives Afternoon Tea.

An interesting affair of Friday afternoon was the tea at which Miss Caroline Selden entertained at her home, Walker Terrace.

Receiving with Miss Selden were her mother, Mrs. George Kersley Selden and Mrs. Blair Armstrong.

SOCIAL ITEMS

Miss Leila Venable Mason, charming sub-deb daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tucker Mason, is visiting Miss Frena Atkinson at Sweet Briar college, Virginia, and afterward will be a guest of Mrs. Perkins Ellis, formerly Miss Sadie Langhorne, at the ancestral home of her uncle, Dr. James Ellis, in Buckingham county in the Old Dominion. Friday Tea at Woman's Club Honors New Club Officers

The regular Friday afternoon tea at the Atlanta Woman's club assembled a representative crowd inaugurating the opening of the swimming pool. Mrs. W. B. Price-Smith, president, presided and introduced Mayor Ragsdale, who spoke interestingly of the many activities of the club, after which Mrs. Arthur Hazard, chairman of the auditorium and swimming pool, gave an interesting report showing the splendid revenues derived from both units.

Mrs. James R. Bachman, vice chairman, was introduced, and she in turn introduced Zola Smith, Claude Ashley, Leo Suderth, Jack Savage, Odessa Rowden and Hardy, each of these gentlemen expressing their appreciation of the great work accomplished by the Atlanta Woman's club along civic lines.

The decorations in the banquet hall were in charge of Mrs. G. H. Brandon and Mrs. Joel Hunter, members of the club furnishing quantities of flowers from their own gardens.

Mrs. Mary Griffith Dobbs, chairman of music, presented Miss Joy Bailey, who gave a charming group of songs, accompanied at the piano by Miss Madeline Dunwoith.

Pupils of Miss Virginia Simon entertained the guests with several beautiful interpretive dances. Those taking part were Jacqueline Gullatt, Nancy Kehr, Julian May, Arthur May II, Henry Bok May and Virginia Gopple. Piano accompaniment by Mrs. George Munger and Mrs. Fay Hodgson Dittig.

Guests of honor were the newly elected officers of the club, as follows: Mrs. John R. Hornady, first vice president; Mrs. DeLois Hill, second vice president; Mrs. J. P. Hill, recording secretary; Mrs. J. L. Womble, assistant recording secretary; Mrs. D. E. Stevenson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. S. Brodigan, treasurer; Mrs. E. H. Havis, Jr., assistant treasurer; Mrs. W. F. Melton, auditor; and Mrs. Norman Sharpe, Mrs. F. B. Eckford, Mrs. W. A. Robinson, Mrs. M. A. Cockendall; Mrs. Harold Roberts, Mrs. E. K. Voohees, Mrs. J. E. Miller, Miss Dorothy Waldman, Miss Dorothy Banks and others.

One of the largest parties of the afternoon was that at which Mrs. Nellie G. Cheves entertained in the ball room in honor of Mrs. James Meegan of Washington, D. C. Mrs. W. C. Winbush had as her guests for tea Mrs. Hattie Gilliland, Mrs. Lawrence Turner, Mrs. H. A. Robbins, Mrs. Clyde Langford, Mrs. Oscar Palmer, Mrs. L. O. Freeman and Mrs. C. D. Tebo.

Miss Virginia Simon, Mrs. M. L. Simon had as her guests for tea Mrs. Fay Hodgson Dittig, Miss Virginia Simon, Mrs. Lewis Morton and Mrs. George Munger. Mrs. F. E. MacKnight, Mrs. Robert Fiske, Mrs. Russell Baker and Mrs. Arnold Hepp formed a congenial party having tea together.

Mrs. E. D. Crane entertained the members of her bridge club in honor of Mrs. Homer McAfee, who is leaving shortly to make her home in California. Others entertaining were Mrs. J. W. Bates, Mrs. J. H. Nichols, Mrs. Clara Martin, Mrs. Pink Cherry and Mrs. Vardeman.

To Attend Convention.
H. M. Stanley, state commissioner of labor, will attend the 14th annual convention of the Association of Governmental Labor Officials of the United States and Canada, which will be held at Paterson, N. J., May 31 to June 3. The Georgia commissioner is first vice president of the association.

Miss Estelle Gardner Honored at Party Series in Decatur

Mrs. James Pittman and Mrs. Joseph Bunch were hostesses at a bridge luncheon in honor of Miss Estelle Gardner Friday at the home of Mrs. Bunch, on Chandler street, in Decatur. Pink sweet peas and blue larkspurs carried out the pretty color scheme.

A bonfire lamp was presented to the guest of honor. Twenty friends of Miss Gardner were the guests. Miss Gardner was honor guest at a bridge-ten given on Friday afternoon by Mrs. Homer Howard, at her home on Clairmont avenue, in Decatur.

An orange and white color scheme was carried out. The entire house was decorated with white sweet peas, daisies, California poppies and corydalis.

The lace covered tea table had a central decoration of white sweet peas and California poppies, and was encircled by silver candlesticks holding orange candles.

Fifty friends were invited to meet the honor guest.

Mrs. Montgomery Elected Regent Of Baron DeKalb

The meeting of the Baron DeKalb chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held Friday, was featured by the annual reports of officers and chairmen and the election of officers, with Mrs. John Montgomery elected regent; honorary regent, Mrs. E. A. Warwick; vice regent, Mrs. E. L. Wade; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. W. Melton; treasurer, Mrs. J. G. Scrutcher; registrar, Mrs. V. A. S. Moore; historian, Mrs. W. H. S. Hamilton; librarian, Mrs. E. B. Clark; and auditor, Mrs. Carl Hughes; parliamentary, Mrs. J. W. Sanders.

New members present were Miss Constance Armstrong, Mrs. Paul Milton, Mrs. Gene Bond, Mrs. John Griggs, Mrs. Harry Speck and Mrs. Henry Earlsman.

In accordance with a resolution passed at the last D. A. R. state conference that at each chapter meeting some phase of subversive propaganda should be exposed, the criticism of the United States Children's bureau by Senator Bayard, of New Jersey, was read. Offsetting this followed a discussion and endorsement of the Georgia state department of public welfare.

Tea was served by the hostesses, Mrs. J. R. King and Mrs. Dan M. Byrd, the colors pink and white being used.

Suffered Terribly

"GOOD HEALTH is a thing so few people appreciate until they have lost it, and it is because I have regained mine, after using Cardui, that I recommend this medicine to many of my friends," says Mrs. Gladys E. Everly. (A picture of Mrs. Everly, who lives near Springfield, Mo., is printed above.)

"Eleven years ago," she says, "I was very much run-down. The state of my health was very bad. I suffered terribly at times. I was nervous and irritable, and nothing I tried seemed to help me. I grew despondent because I was so weak and no account."

"Sometimes I would have to give up and go to bed. When I was up, I was just able to drag around. I worried a great deal."

"My mother induced me to try Cardui. She knew of its worth, as she had known of several people who have been greatly benefited after taking it. I took Cardui regularly for several months. I soon began to build up. After a few months of the Cardui Home Treatment, I was perfectly well. My health was better than it had been in years."

"Two years ago I found I needed Cardui, and again I took it for several months. I was soon feeling well and strong, and was able to do my work with no discomfort."

Try Cardui today, for your own troubles.

NATIONAL BENEFIT LIFE ENJOINEDBoykin Urges Police Preserve Fingerprints

The case of J. S. Flipper et al. against the Standard Life Insurance Company of Arkansas and the National Benefit Life Insurance Company of Washington, D. C., was concluded on Friday in Judge Humphries' division of Fulton superior court.

Plaintiffs complained that under a decree of court the Standard Life Insurance company was undertaking to reimburse its business with the National Benefit Life Insurance company with out notice or consent of the policyholders.

The bill of complaint charged that the decree of reimbursement was obtained through legal fraud on the part of the policyholders and that the alleged reimbursement was ineffective and injurious to the policyholders who had not assented.

Under the decision rendered by Judge Humphries it was held that none of the policyholders of the Standard Life Insurance company who were not parties to the suit in which the reimbursement decree was rendered were bound by the decree.

The prayer of the plaintiffs to enjoin the National Benefit Life Insurance company from removing any assets from Georgia and from paying out its funds from this state was granted.

Those of the policyholders who were parties to the original cause or who had assented to the plan of reimbursement were permitted to reimburse, while policyholders who had not ratified the proposed plan were authorized to proceed for the return of all premiums hitherto paid, with legal interest thereon.

The property of the insurance company in Georgia was ordered impounded to secure the payment of any judgments rendered in favor of dissenting policyholders.

Upon the adjournment of court counsel in the case were given time in which to prepare a decree carrying into effect the decision of the court.

Exercise of greater care in the preservation of fingerprints at the scene of homicides was urged Friday upon Police Chief James L. Beavers in a letter received from Solicitor General Boykin, Chief Beavers issued a special order, drawing attention to members of the department to the communication, and requesting that the suggestion be complied with.

Solicitor General Boykin made a plea for cooperation from the police department in keeping the scene of homicides clear of outsiders until the police finger-print and photographs all possible prints and fully cover the ground.

There have been a dozen homicide cases within the past few years which could have easily been solved if officers bearing finger-prints had not been disturbed until the identification bureau had a chance to photograph prints, Mr. Boykin said.

POLICE ON LOOKOUT FOR MARIETTA GIRL

Police Friday were requested to be on the watch for Opie Tarpley, 15-year-old girl of Marietta, who left home several days ago and has not been seen since. The girl has dark brown bobbed hair, a dark complexion, weighs 120 pounds, is five feet five inches tall, and has on a lavender colored dress, brown hose, a rose colored hat, and black shoes, according to information furnished by W. P. Tarpley.

number of ordinary unfavorable new developments, apparently deriving its chief impetus from the easy credit conditions that have been in vogue based largely on unfavorable crop reports from Canada and the winter wheat belt of this country.

As a result of these views, which characterize general conditions as "spotty" but report no general contraction of business, the steel industry was reported in the operations of the U.S. Steel corporation, although steel and iron scrap prices were quoted 25 per cent lower than a year ago in the district. The first 42 railroads to report their April earnings show a drop of about 10 per cent in net railway operating income.

Railway association estimates a drop of about 50,000 tons in loading this year. Directors of the Yellow Tail corporation passed the quarterly dividend of $1.25, due at this time.

Competitive bidding for control was believed by many Wall Street traders to be the reason behind the heavy buying of some of the eastern and middle western carriers. New maximum prices were recorded by New York at 268 1/2.

Prices for paper to which attention was called last week were again showing new low in reflection of the recent passing of the dividend. Pittsburgh & West Virginia broke 6 points and American Tobacco, Paria Alcoa Sugar and Pullman certificates were conspicuously heavy.

Call money held at 4 1/2 per cent all day. Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged.

Market Gossip

News From Wall Street and New York
Editorial Comment
(By Fenner & Beane Leased Wire to The Constitution.)

STOCK OPINIONS.

New York, May 27.—Fenner & Beane: Another distinct phase has developed in the stock market in which many recent issues are being brought forward and marketed. We expect this to continue with new "dark horses" coming to the front every day.

sustained demand for stocks through the session. Stocks and markets were quiet but held firm ground, while almost all the rest of the list moved forward. There was good buying of high grade railroad stocks such as Atchafalpa and New York Central, the latter going to a new record level at 155 1/2. The market ignored the decline in the reserve ratio of the New York Federal present in our own case the pull' of the market. It is a fact that Mr. F. E. Keech: 'The market we think will cause more astonishment before the world than it has in the past.' Mr. Keech, Mr. Prince & Whitely. While we are still generally bullish on the rails we continue to believe that the stock market will move up rapidly. We should not be surprised to see some drives against a few issues.

My brothers: We believe the decision to submit a revised plan of the south-western merger to the interstate commerce commission will be a wise one. We think it will be approved had much to do with the renewal of strength in the rails.

The earmarking of $400,000 gold reserve for the purchase of money and bonds, this means a loss of funds by the banks. In this case, however, it would appear that the government is not concerned with the shape of government securities which over the past few years have been a little more than the amount of gold earmarked.

Mr. Baldwin indicated there had been some short selling of the stock Thursday after the directors' meeting and that the stock market was being decided. The stock ran up to a new high at 2.25 on Friday. The stock market was a little better than specialists enjoyed substantial gains, including Pittsburgh Coal, Rush Terminal and General Electric.

NEW YORK POST.

Southern Railway's price near its record high level attained last year, only a small fraction separating it from the peak of 1929. The stock has been neglected for some weeks, presumably because of the general market's preoccupation with the automobile industry, which consistently behind a year ago when the Florida boom was a factor. But today the market is again turning to the railroad, and looking upon Southern Railway as likely to have a bright future. The stock, which was buying was based largely on that assumption.

United Chemical, another of the high-priced favorites, which has had little part in the recent market rally, is also showing brisk buying movement. As usual, the price is based on the company's earnings in reference to its strong position and its increase in production.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD. The point early in the day was the cause of much speculation. The stock was at a low level for that usually slow-moving stock, but the price was not so low as it was in character as the stock is well attracted from that standpoint. The current dividend was 4 1/2 percent, and the price was 100, which is the advance in appreciation of Norfolk and Western, which is a very high price for a stock believed to hold about 45 per cent common and preferred.

PITTSBURGH STEEL. The high level to which was attained by American International corporation, which was the cause of the appreciation in the company's security, had been reached by the stock, which was preferred. The company is believed to be in the best cash position in years.

holders when directed—conducted such an analysis. The results of the study, published recently on Chemical's huge surplus for years and for quite a spell each quarterly meeting of the firm showed a picture of growth with predictions that the time for such a move was at hand. The firm's stock was slow to act, though this year the decline in the stock was raised from $4 to $5 a share.

WALL STREET JOURNAL.—Sentiment in the street was almost entirely optimistic and this was reflected in the following:

NEGROES INDICTED IN BUICK MURDER
AFTER DEFEATING MILLOY AND THREATENING FREMONT'S FORCE, "STONEWALL" JACKSON EXPECTEDLY TURNED EASTWARD AND, MARCHING WITH A RAPIDITY THAT WON FOR HIS CAVALRYMEN THE NAME OF "JACKSON'S FOOT CAVALRY," SET OUT ACROSS THE SHENANDOAH VALLEY TO ATTACK GEN. BANKS AT STRASBURG BY WAY OF FRONT ROYAL.

Jackson in the Shenandoah Valley—Part Two.

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

JACKSON, FINDING THAT BANKS HAD FLED FROM STRASBURG, HOTLY PURSUED HIM DOWN THE VALLEY AND OVERTOOK THE UNION FORCE AT WINCHESTER ON MAY 25. THE CONFEDERATES ATTACKED FURIOUSLY AND BANKS, AFTER A FUTILE RESISTANCE CONTINUED HIS RETREAT TOWARD MARYLAND.

THE FOLLOWING DAY, THE FLEEING FEDERALS ESCAPED ACROSS THE POTOMAC, WHILE JACKSON, WHO HAD KEPT UP THE CHASE FOR WINCHESTER, HALTED NEAR HARPER'S FERRY. HIS SUCCESS IN ADVANCE TO THE POTOMAC CREATED A PANIC IN WASHINGTON AND McDOWELL'S ARMY WHICH HAD REACHED FREDERICKSBURG ON ITS WAY TO JOIN McCLELLAN WAS AT ONCE ORDERED TO THE BLUE RIDGE.

MONDAY—JACKSON'S ESCAPE.

NEGROES INDICTED IN BUICK MURDER

CHARLIE HICKS AND JIM GRANT, negroes, were indicted jointly Friday by the Fulton county grand jury on charges of murder in connection with the slaying of J. L. Ferguson, night watchman at the Buick Motor company on Spring street.

The indictments charge that the duo killed Ferguson by beating him to death with a hammer and a piece of an automobile spring. The watchman was found in a dying condition in an elevator shaft at the company's plant Sunday morning at an official.

The negroes are said to have confessed to city detectives that Grant struck the watchman with the automobile spring at the same time that Hicks wielded an ax. The attack was made as Ferguson started down a stairway in the building. Robbery is advanced as the motive.

According to affidavits in the solicitor's office the cases against the negroes will be placed on the criminal calendar for Tuesday, June 7.

Boone Tablet Is Unveiled Near Capitol

With a group of Atlanta boy scouts and girl scouts in attendance on the Washington street side of the capitol building grounds Friday night, the Boone tablet dedicated to the Georgia pioneer of the same name, was unveiled by Polly Boone, descendant of the famous trail-blazer.

In the name of the state of Georgia, Miss Ruth Blair, state historian, received the tablet while two young descendants of Boone, Mathilde Trammell and Adam W. Trammell, draped the bronze tablet in an American flag.

The dedication exercise was ushered in with a hymn by the boy scouts. T. B. Higdon, president of the North Carolina club, invocation was made by B. D. Gray, secretary of the Home Mission board of the Southern Baptist convention.

"Progress and the Pioneer" was the subject of an address by T. Bright Woodhouse, auditor of the postal service and former of Booneville, N. C.

J. Hampton Kirk, managing director of the Boone Highway association, explained the legend of the tablet, which, he said, was made up in part of metal from the battleship Maine which was blown up in the Havana harbor.

A torchlight procession of school children of the city high school and Joel Chandler Harris school followed. Professor E. Merton Coulter, of the University of Georgia, read the life of Daniel Boone, after which the unveiling followed.

Following the dedication, Professor Preston H. Epps of Boys' High school received custody of the tablet.

NEGROES GET HEAVY TERMS FOR HOLDUPS

Richard Reeves and Harper Bell, negroes, pleaded guilty Friday before Judge Velen B. Moore in Fulton superior court to two indictments charging robbery and were sentenced to serve ten years on the chainage.

The negroes are alleged to have robbed Earl Black on two occasions. On the first $7.50 was taken and on the second alleged holdup $10 in cash was taken. The judge sentenced the negroes on each indictment, the sentences, however, to run concurrently. Judge Moore said.
